

Silver Spring Elementary School

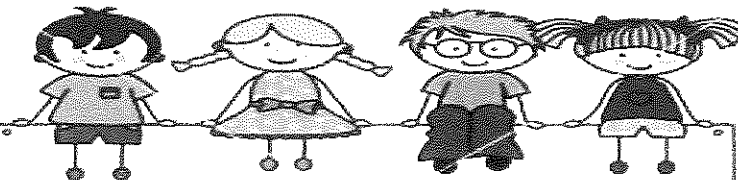

A Feinstein Leadership School

2016-2017

"Helping to better the lives of others is the greatest of all achievements."

-Alan Shawn Feinstein

"As a Feinstein Leadership School we are committed to teaching our students to be caring of others."

Michael Kirkutis - Principal

Barbara Lardner - Newsletter

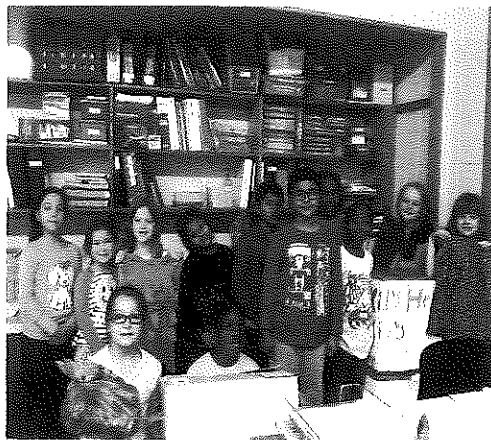

Alan Shawn Feinstein is founder of the Feinstein Foundation, dedicated to helping the needy and encouraging youngsters to do likewise. His campaign to fight hunger has raised over $2.5 Billion for thousands of anti-hunger agencies nationwide. There are now over 100,000 Feinstein Junior Scholars!

Kids Helping Kids

The 2nd grade Feinstein Junior Scholars collected 'gently used' clothing for children in Haiti.

Back to School Luau

The Feinstein Junior Scholars were there to lend a hand, helping the PTC at our Back to School Luau

Hope & Faith Drive

The Feinstein Junior Scholars helped to collect canned goods for members of the local East Providence community in need

Watch 'Our Great Kids' on Saturday and Sunday at 10am on PBS 36 and Cox 8.

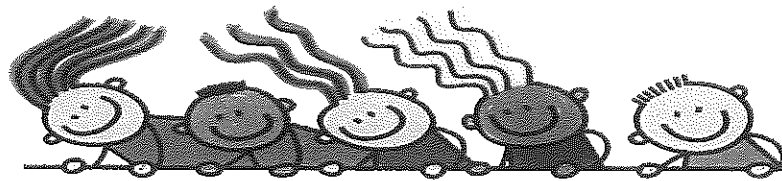

The Feinstein Junior Scholars led our Operation Fill A Stocking fundraiser in December. They helped out in collecting toiletries, books, hat scarves and gloves to donate to RI veterans Homes and Hospitals.

The Feinstein Junior Scholars helped the Silver Spring PTC raise funds for our school during the Haunted Hallways fall fundraiser.

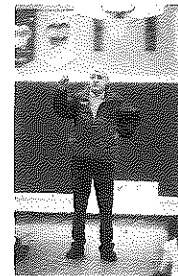

our Feinsein Junior Scholars collected 1052 cans of food during the month of December for the annual Feinsein Campaign to Fight Hunger.

Thank you,
Mr. Feinstein, for encouraging us to become more caring!

-the Feinsein Junior Scholars of Silver Spring Elementary School

our Feinsein Junior Scholars were the role models during our Leaves of Kindness Program. They wrote words of encouragement to give to our local Police Department.

